The Story So Far

Lily Blanche is a Scottish jewellery brand founded by Gillian Crawford, specialising in hand-crafted lockets and personalised jewellery.

Our journey began with a childhood discovery - a freshwater pearl found on the shore of a Hebridean island, home to Gillian's grandmother, Lily Blanche. This moment sparked a lifelong fascination for creating jewellery that tells a story

Today we are an award-winning brand, cherished around the world. We're proud to be rated 4.9/5 on Trustpilot by 1500 happy customers.
