

Redefine Indulgence this Festive Period with Pots & Co:
Transforming Everyday Moments into Celebrations

This festive season, we at Pots & Co are redefining what indulgence means, bringing Michelin-star quality to supermarket shelves with desserts crafted from clean, honest ingredients and uncompromising flavour. Therefore, our little pots are both exceptional in taste and integrity.

Why not embrace a touch of decadence this Christmas? At the heart of our range are two classics that embody indulgence with integrity. Our Salted Caramel and Chocolate Ganache Pot pairs silky chocolate with golden caramel in elegant glassware that doubles as a sustainable keepsake. Alongside it, our Double Chocolate Ganache Pot delivers a deeply decadent, melt-in-the-mouth experience made with the finest chocolate. Made to elevate festive entertaining, both are created to bring a touch of luxury and sophistication to every table.

We know today's lifestyles demand convenience, and that is why we have created gourmet solutions for those who are time-poor yet taste-conscious.

At Pots & Co, we remain dedicated to rescuing people from uninspiring, additive-filled supermarket food and proving that it is possible to create exceptional, Michelin-star quality desserts that are accessible to all. This Christmas, we invite everyone to indulge mindfully and savour every spoonful.

About Pots & Co

Pots & Co was founded with a vision to elevate chilled desserts through exceptional flavour, professional craft, and integrity. Each pot is free from preservatives and artificial flavours – instead, we use only the finest natural ingredients to deliver a truly premium dessert experience at home.

Known for our signature glass pots and chef-led approach, we continue to redefine indulgence with clean ingredients, authentic taste, and meticulous craftsmanship.

As our founder, Julian, puts it:

“We only use ingredients you’d find in your grandmother’s store cupboard.”
