About Thornton & France

Thornton & France has been providing delicious drinks and gifts since 1717. The brand is now owned by Spicers of Hythe, providing luxury hampers and gifts since 1926. Across all those years, they have maintained their commitment to sourcing the best tasting ingredients from independent producers across the UK and farther afield. In 2020, the company relocated to Gateshead in the Northeast of England where their team hand-pack thousands of hampers each year and support customers through over £12m of orders delivered to recipients around the world.
