A MOMENT SHARED A MOMENT TREASURED

•

This Christmas, celebrate your loved ones with the gift of hand-engraved jewellery, personalised by our family for yours.

Tell your story with each charm, bring your words to life and celebrate the birth of a new baby, your most treasured friendship or the family you hold close to make this the most magical and meaningful Christmas yet.

With love from,

The Merci Maman team ♡

The Kindred Collection

One of the most precious gifts we have is family and our Kindred collection honours just that. A celebration of who we are, the people we love, the places and the moments we share.

This is us and this is where we belong because at Christmas time, all roads lead to home.

LAPIS LAZULI

Known as the 'wisdom keeper' for that special someone who has great intuition and extensive wisdom.

MALACHITE

For those who are in touch with their inner self, Moonstone offers a soothing warmth when in their presence.

AMAZONITE

For that one person who has gone or is going through some big changes in their life. Malachite is worn to offer clarity and patience in times when it is needed.

BLACK ONYX

Worn as a symbol of protection, Black onyx honours the energy and personal power that comes with facing our fears.

MOONSTONE

To reflect their soothing and nurturing nature, Amazonite resonates a calming and tranquil energy to those who wear it.

RED JASPER

Red Jasper is full of grounding earth energy, and is said to increase self-confidence and emotional protection.

The Birth Flower Collection

Our Birth Flower collection was hand-drawn by a very talented team member. Twelve floral design with a special meaning making each flower unique just like nature intended.

JANUARY
Carnation

A meaning of love, distinction and fascination, the Carnation is universally loved. It also symbolises luck and gratitude and is often referred to as the flower of the gods.

FEBRUARY
Violet

With delicate heart-shaped petals, Violet is a symbol of true love, modesty and virtue. Often used in poems, this flower is a sign of everlasting affection.

MARCH
Cherry Blossom

Blooming with grace & beauty, the Cherry Blossom signifies the beginning of spring. Its short-lived bloom reminds us that life is beautiful and that every moment should be cherished.

APRIL
Daisy

A Daisy represents new beginnings and innocence. It is a delicate symbol of the start to a powerful journey, making it the perfect keepsake for anyone taking on a new venture.

MAY
Peony

The beautiful Peony is a symbol of true romance, prosperity and compassion. With its full, rounded bloom, it also embodies prosperity and is regarded as an omen of good fortune.

JUNE
ROSE

A Rose needs no introduction. Each colour, from red to rainbow, carries a meaning and a message. Whether it's love, pride or gratitude or joy, a Rose's symbolism is iconic and ever so pretty.

JULY
Lotus

The Lotus flower is a symbol of purity and patience and holds a deep spiritual meaning for its wearer. It offers hope that something beautiful can grow from suffering.

AUGUST
Gladioli

Symbolising strength, pride and moral integrity, the striking colours and towering stems of a Gladioli represent someone special that we look up to.

SEPTEMBER
Aster

Aster is a popular daisy-like flower that has grown wild since ancient times. With its colourful beauty, Aster is known as a talisman of love and a symbol of patience.

OCTOBER
Cosmos

The Cosmos flower represents love and beauty and comes in many beautiful colours. It has the nickname the 'flower of love' and is also the second wedding anniversary flower.

NOVEMBER
Camellia

Also known as the 'Rose of Japan', the Camellia flower symbolises love, affection, and is used as a gift to express a romantic interest from a secret admirer.

DECEMBER
Poinsettia

With bright red leaves and subtle flowers, a Poinsettia brings festive spirit. Also known as 'Christmas Star', Poinsettia is associated with good luck when given to a loved one.
